14.2.1. University Initiated Observations: Should the University initiate a classroom observation of Adjunct Faculty, the University shall inform the Adjunct faculty member at least one week in advance of such observation. Such notice shall include the purpose of the observation and provide the adjunct faculty member the opportunity to meet with the chair or dean prior to the observation, unless exigent circumstances exist. The observer shall use the approved observation form (attached as Appendix C). Following any university-initiated classroom observation, the Dean or his/her designee shall prepare for the Adjunct Faculty member, a written report of such observation including any recommendations for improvement, as warranted, and the time frame for completion. Any suggestions for improvement shall be specific, measurable and tangible. The Faculty member will be provided a copy of the assessment and has the right to submit a written rebuttal to the Dean or his/her designee within three (3) weeks of a Faculty member's receipt of the report. This rebuttal will be maintained in the Adjunct Faculty member's personnel file.

15 ARTICLE 15: PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

15.1 The University encourages activities to enhance the teaching capabilities of the adjunct faculty and continued enhancement of the UML reputation. Towards that end the University will continue a professional development program:

15.1.1 The University shall maintain an Adjunct Faculty Professional Development Fund to support the enhancement of teaching skills, abilities and techniques. The fund shall be administered by the Provost's office. In the first two years of the contract the fund shall have a balance of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) at the beginning of each fiscal year. At the beginning of the fiscal year in the third year of the contract the fund shall have a beginning balance of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and shall be available for disbursement until a new collective bargaining contract is reached by the parties. Such funds shall be available for use during the summers whether or not the faculty member is teaching during the summer.

15.1.2 The process for eligibility and selection is set forth in Appendix D of this Agreement and may be amended by the Labor Management Committee.

16 ARTICLE 16: DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

16.1 The University shall have the right to discipline any Faculty member, up to and including discharge, for just cause. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, such disciplinary treatment shall be subject to the provisions of Article 18 (Dispute/Grievance and Arbitration Procedure).

16.2 This provision shall not cover those instances when the University does not renew an Adjunct or Senior Adjunct Faculty member's appointment for reasons articulated in Article 13, Faculty Structure.

17 ARTICLE 17: RETRENCHMENT

17.1 The term "Retrenchment" as used in this Agreement means the laying off of any Unit member by means of financial exigency and/or substantial declining enrollment or declining enrollment in a context of financial exigency, and does not mean termination.

17.1.1 Pre-Retrenchment: General Provisions

17.1.1.1 The parties recognize that intelligent planning to avoid retrenchment is essential as a matter of efficient management; the furtherance of reasonable expectations of employment security for unit members; and the need to retain the integrity and continuity of the University's Program of Affirmative Action and continue the implementation of this program as required by federal and state law, regulations, guidelines and policies.

17.1.1.2 If and when retrenchment seems imminent, the University shall make plans to permit attrition to effect the required reduction of Faculty.

17.1.1.3 Prior to implementing Retrenchment, the University shall meet with the union to notify them of the proposed impact of the retrenchment including the reduction, curtailment, modification or discontinuance of programs or courses which will lead to a reduction in Unit size.

17.1.1.4 When a plan or policy of retrenchment is necessary, the process established in Article XIII, Faculty Structure for non-reappointment and recall rights shall apply

17.1.2 Other Rights

17.1.2.1 Nothing contained in this Article or in this Agreement shall supersede or abrogate the rights of Faculty as state employees, either as veterans or in any other respect that may be established under the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

17.1.2.2 The parties agree to a joint committee having as its charge the development and prioritization of a list of alternatives to retrenchment which list, upon acceptance by both parties shall become part of this Article. The committee shall be composed of two (2) bargaining unit members chosen by the Union and two (2) members chosen by the University Administration.

18 ARTICLE 18: DISPUTE GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

18.1 A grievance within the meaning of this Agreement shall be any dispute concerning the interpretation, application or claimed violation of a term or provision of this Agreement. A prompt and efficient method of settling Disputes, as herein defined, is both desirable and necessary. Moreover, notwithstanding the availability of the formal procedures of this Article, it is agreed an informal resolution of any Dispute is desirable.

18.2 An aggrieved Faculty member or the Union shall present a grievance within twenty (20) working days of its occurrence or discovery. A Faculty member may be accompanied by a Union representative at any step of the of the grievance procedure.

18.3 The following steps shall be followed in the processing of disputes/grievances:

18.3.1 Step 1. The Faculty member shall informally discuss the dispute/grievance with his/her immediate supervisor within twenty (20) working days of its occurrence or discovery. Matters resolved at this Step will not create a precedent for the interpretation or application of this Agreement. If the dispute/grievance is not resolved within thirty (30) working days from its occurrence or discovery the grievance may proceed to Step 2. Furthermore, while Faculty and administration are encouraged to resolve disputes at Step 1, the Faculty member or Union may initiate a grievance at Step 2 provided it is so initiated within the twenty (20) working days of its occurrence or discovery, as specified above.

18.3.2 Step 2. Disputes/grievances that proceed to Step 2 must be reduced to writing and sent to the Dean of the appropriate department or his/her designee within ten (10) working days of the Step 1 response or within thirty (30) working days of its occurrence or discovery if the Faculty member does not choose to go through Step 1. The Dispute/Grievance must specify the nature of the grievance, the date of occurrence and discovery, the provision(s) of this Agreement at issue and the relief requested. The Dean or his/her designee shall meet with the grievant and the Union within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance. The Dean or his/her designee shall respond to the Union in writing within ten (10) working days of the meeting, with a copy to the University's Human Resources Department and the Office of the Provost.

18.3.3 Step 3. A grievance not resolved at Step 2 may be appealed in writing within ten (10) working days of the conclusion of Step 2 to the Provost or his/her designee. The Provost or designee shall meet with the grievant and the Union to discuss the grievance within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written appeal. Both the Provost or designee and the Union are not precluded from inviting other representatives who are relevant to the grievance. The Provost or designee shall respond to the Union in writing within ten (10) working days of the meeting.

18.4 A grievance by the University will initiate at Step 3. A grievance by the University shall be in writing, addressed to the Union at its offices, within twenty (20) working days of its occurrence or discovery, and shall specify the nature of the grievance, the provision(s) of this Agreement at issue and the relief requested. The Union shall respond in writing within ten (10) working days of its receipt, and shall send a copy of its response to the University's Human Resources Department.

18.5 Any dispute filed by the Union on behalf of two or more Faculty members or involving the disciplinary suspension or discharge of a Faculty member or a grievance regarding an action taken or a decision made by a Dean, may be initiated at Step 3. Additionally, as to any other dispute, the parties may proceed initially at Step 3 if by mutual agreement, in writing.

18.6 Any disposition of a dispute/grievance from which no appeal is taken within the time limits specified herein shall be deemed resolved and shall not be considered further subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. Failure on the part of either party to address a grievance at any step shall not be deemed acquiescence thereto, and the grieving party may proceed to the next step.

18.7 A grievance not resolved at Step 3 may be taken to arbitration by the Union or the University within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of Step 3. The time within which a party may take a grievance to arbitration is of the essence. A party shall take a grievance to arbitration by giving notice to that effect, with a copy to the other party, to the American Arbitration Association pursuant to its Labor Arbitration Rules. Unless the parties agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, such selection shall be in accordance with the procedures of the Labor Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.

18.8 The arbitration shall be in accordance with the procedures of the Labor Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction only over disputes arising out of grievances, as defined in this Article, and shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify or amend in any way the provisions of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Faculty member, the Union and the University. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator and the American Arbitration Association shall be borne equally by the Union and the University.

18.9 If a Faculty member must miss a class because he/she is required to attend an arbitration, there will be no loss of teaching wages for that Faculty member. If the University subpoenas a Faculty member to appear at an arbitration and he/she loses wages from another employer, the University will reimburse that Faculty member his/her lost wages upon presentation of proof documenting such losses.

18.10 The time limits provided for in this Article shall not include Saturday, Sundays or University holidays. All time limits herein may be extended by mutual agreement.

19 ARTICLE 19: ACCESS TO SERVICES AND FACILITIES

19.1 Support Services: The University shall make available to Faculty normal, traditional and reasonable academic and professional support services and facilities. This shall include appropriate office space, access to meeting rooms and lounges consistent with that provided other university employees; use of the library, computer, telephone, laboratory and technical services; internal and external mail services; appropriate administrative services including payroll, personnel services; parking; maintenance and/or janitorial services; and other appropriate work facilities that are clean, well-lighted, maintained at reasonable temperatures, safe and healthful.

19.2 Offices: Each Faculty member shall have adequate office space. Adequate office space shall be designated as such and used solely for that purpose. Adequate office space shall be defined as appropriate shared enclosed space. Offices shall be equipped with phones, computers, desk and locked storage for each Faculty, and access to a printer and wireless internet access. Upon reasonable advance notice, the employer shall provide private space for a faculty member to discuss a confidential academic matter with a student.

19.3 Communal Space: The parties acknowledge that the development of communal space for University employees is desirable. When such space is developed it shall be made available to Adjunct Faculty on the same basis as other university employees.

20 ARTICLE 20: UNPAID AND PAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

20.1 Unpaid leaves of Absence

20.1.1 Faculty shall be entitled to an unpaid leave of absence for any reason required by law.

20.1.2 Family and Medical Leave, Mass Maternity Leave, Small Necessities Acts; etc.: The University shall abide by Federal and State laws related to leaves of absence. In addition, the University shall offer family and medical leaves on the same terms as is required by the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act. The year shall be counted as a rolling 12-month period. In addition to family and medical leave, the University shall offer 24 hours of additional unpaid leave to eligible Faculty for the purposes outlined in the Small Necessities Leave Act, M.G.L.c.149, sec. 52D.

20.1.3 Parenting Leave - Faculty are eligible for eight weeks of parenting leave under the Massachusetts Maternity Leave Act if he/she has completed the initial probationary period, if any, set by the terms of her/his employment; and he/she is absent from such employment for a period not exceeding eight weeks for the purpose of giving birth; or adopting a child under the age of 18; or adopting a child under the age of 23, if the child is mentally or physically disabled; and he/she gives her employer at least two weeks' notice of her/her anticipated date of departure and intention to return. If an employee meets these eligibility requirements, the employer must grant eight weeks of unpaid maternity leave under the MMLA. An employer cannot refuse to grant MMLA leave on the grounds that doing so would constitute a hardship. The MMLA, by its terms, provides maternity leave to female employees only. However, the University recognizes that providing maternity leave in excess of the eight weeks required by the MMLA to female employees only, and not to males, would in most circumstances constitute sex discrimination in violation of Chapter 151B and federal prohibitions against sex discrimination. Faculty shall maintain their appointment with no loss of seniority for absences under this provision.

20.1.4 Faculty shall receive one semester of unpaid leave for verifiable medical reasons with no loss of seniority and shall be offered an assignment equal to the number of course(s) taught prior to the leave in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 Faculty Structure.

20.1.5 Faculty may be considered for an unpaid leave of absence for reasons other than as set forth in paragraph 20.1.1 above, upon request. Any request should be submitted to the Dean in writing. The Dean or his/her designee will determine whether or not the request can be granted. The Dean's decision is final and is not subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure of this Agreement.

20.1.6 Upon return from an authorized leave, the University shall offer an assignment equal to the number of course(s) taught prior to the leave in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 Faculty Structure.

20.1.7 Seniority, compensation, and any benefits related thereto held by the Faculty Member shall be retained upon return to the University at the completion of an authorized leave.

20.2 Paid Leaves of Absence

20.2.1 Sick Leave Compensation: Adjunct Faculty will be eligible for one day of paid sick leave per semester, which if not used in that semester shall not carry over. In addition, Adjunct Faculty may earn sick leave per the Massachusetts Earned Paid Sick Leave Law, which if not used will be carried over to the extent the law requires.

20.2.2 Military Leave:

20.2.2.1 Except where otherwise specified, terms used in this Article shall be defined consistent with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), 38 U.S.C. §§4301, et seq. and Mass General Laws Chapter 33, §§ 38, 40, 41, 59 and 60.

20.2.2.2 Faculty shall be granted leave as required for scheduled training and active duty in any uniformed services of the federal government or the Commonwealth. Upon return from such leave, Faculty shall be reinstated to their former position and status, subject to the provisions in Article 13, Faculty Structure, and shall be treated as if they were continuously employed for purposes of paid leave, scheduled salary increases, and any other rights or benefits based on length of service.

20.2.2.3 Faculty shall be entitled to pay during time of military service, in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 33, Section 59. Faculty may also, at their option, utilize accrued paid time off during unpaid military leave.

20.2.2.4 Any Faculty who is a veteran, as defined by M.G.L. chapter 149, Section 52A½ shall be entitled to leave without loss of regular pay to participate in Veterans Day and/or Memorial Day observances.

20.3 Jury and Witness Duty:

20.3.1 Jury Duty: A Faculty summoned for jury duty will be granted a leave of absence with pay for time lost from their regular work schedule while on jury duty upon presentation of the summons to jury duty to his/her supervisor. A Faculty who receives jury duty fees for jury service upon presentation of the appropriate court certificate of service shall either:

20.3.1.1 Retain such jury fees in lieu of pay for the period of jury service if the jury fees exceed his/her regular rate of compensation for the period involved; or 20.3.1.2 Remit to the University the jury fees if less than his/her regular rate of compensation for the period involved.

20.3.1.3 Jury fees, for the purposes of this Article, shall be the per diem rate paid for jury duty by the Court, not including the expenses reimbursed for travel, meals, rooms or incidentals.

20.3.2 Witness Duty:

20.3.2.1 Faculty who are summoned to appear as witnesses on behalf of the Commonwealth, or any town, city, or county of the Commonwealth, or on behalf of the Federal Government, shall be granted witness service leave without loss of pay for this purpose. Notice of service shall be provided to the Chair upon receipt of the summons. Faculty who receive witness fees for services during their regular work hours shall remit those fees to the University.

20.3.2.2 When a Faculty has been granted leave for jury duty or witness service, and is excused by proper court authority, the Faculty shall report back to official place of duty whenever the interruption in jury duty or witness service will permit four or more consecutive hours of work.

20.3.3 Jury and witness leave shall not affect any employment rights, opportunities or benefits.

21 ARTICLE 21: HEALTH AND SAFETY

21.1 The University agrees to provide working conditions including supplies and equipment that meet health and safety standards provided for in applicable state statutes. When a condition is found not to meet such standards, the University agrees to remedy such conditions as soon as reasonably possible; provided further, however, that no bargaining unit member shall be compelled to work under conditions which confront him/her with an imminent safety and/or health danger.

21.2 The Labor Management Committee as provided for in Article 7, in addition to its other duties, shall discuss matters relating to health and safety. Either party may call additional meetings of the Labor Management Committee to resolve specific health and safety issues.

21.3 Adjunct Faculty will be participating members of the University's Health and Safety Committee.

22 ARTICLE 22: PERSONNEL FILES

22.1A Faculty member may review his/her personnel file. The University must make the personnel file available within 5 business days after a written request by the Faculty member. Upon his/her request, the Faculty member will be given a photocopy of any item(s) in such file(s).

22.2 Where the Faculty member seeks review of his/her personnel file in connection with Article 18 (Dispute/Grievance and Arbitration Procedure), the Union representative and/or steward may be present at the review and examine the documents.

22.3 The University is required to notify Faculty members within 10 days when any addition to their personnel record is made, if that addition could negatively impact the employee's employment status, pay, salary increase, prospects for promotion, transfer or training, or if the information could result in disciplinary action. The Faculty member has the right to inspect his/her employee personnel file after receiving such notification.

22.4 The Faculty member shall have the right to submit a written response to any documents placed in his/her file.

23 ARTICLE 23: COMPENSATION

23.1 The following shall represent the minimum rates of compensation per three credit hour course taught per semester. These rates will be pro-rated for courses taught that are fewer or greater than three credits.

23.1.1 Effective Fall Semester 2022, increase base teaching rates by two percent (2%). The minimum base teaching rates shall be as follows:

FAHSS, Education, and Public Health: $5,402.23

Sciences, Engineering, Physical Therapy & Kinesiology,
and Biomedical and Nutritional Sciences: $6,017.33

Business and Nursing: $6,685.92

23.1.2 The minimums noted in (1) above will be adjusted as follows:

Effective Fall Semester 2023, increase base teaching rates by six percent (6%). The minimum base teaching rates shall be as follows:

FAHSS, Education, and Public Health: $5,726.36

Sciences, Engineering, Physical Therapy & Kinesiology,
and Biomedical and Nutritional Sciences: $6,378.37

Business and Nursing: $7,087.08

23.1.3 Senior Adjunct Faculty shall receive a 10% increment above these minimum levels.

23.1.4 Adjunct faculty holding a terminal degree in the relevant discipline (e.g. doctorate or MFA) shall receive an additional $500 to their salary rate per course.

23.1.5 Any further adjustments beyond these minimum salary levels noted in (23.1.1) and (23.1.2) above will be determined at the sole discretion of the University and will be based on such criteria as: College or discipline, other experience or qualifications as are deemed relevant by the University, determination that contact hours expectations are higher than recorded credit hours, past practices in the department, or other market related factors which impact the University's ability to attract Adjunct Faculty as determined by University needs.

23.1.6 Individual incumbent adjunct faculty, who are currently receiving a higher rate than noted in Sections (23.1.1-23.1.4) above, shall maintain such higher rates.

23.1.7 The parties agree that the rate for developing a course requested by UML shall be not less than the minimum salary rate for teaching the course.

23.2 Division of Corporate and Continuing Education

23.2.1 Adjunct Faculty members teaching Continuing Education, three-credit-hour courses with enrollments of ten (10) or more students shall receive full compensation, as noted in section 23.1 above for such courses. For classes with enrollment that exceeds twenty-seven (27) students in a three-credit-hour course, Adjunct Faculty shall receive an additional $500 per each additional three students enrolled. For classes that fall below enrollment of ten (10) students, but not fewer than seven (7) students – and if the University at its sole discretion decides to run the course, the Adjunct faculty member will be offered the course at compensation of $500 less than the rates noted in section 23.1 above for such course. The Adjunct Faculty may decline to teach the course at the lower compensation. Because courses through Continuing Education must be self-supporting, courses with fewer than 7 students may be cancelled at any time prior to the first-class meeting.

23.2.2 Course enrollment levels, for the purpose of administering this section, will be determined as of the first official day of classes each semester.

23.3 Applied Music Instruction

23.3.3 Adjunct Faculty who teach applied music instruction shall be entitled to advance to Senior Adjunct Faculty in accordance with Article 13, Faculty Structure, and shall receive a $5.00 increase to their hourly rate.

23.3.4 Individual incumbent adjunct faculty who are currently receiving a higher rate than $63.25/hour shall maintain such higher rate plus the same percentage increases as outlined in sections 23.1.5 and shall be entitled to the increases provided for in Paragraphs 23.3.1 and 23.3.2, above.

23.4 Other General Matters

23.4.1 The University reserves the right to engage Adjunct Faculty in other business of the University which work is not governed by this Collective Bargaining Agreement. The University will determine the pay rate(s) that it will offer for such assignments and Adjunct Faculty will have the right to accept or refuse such assignment.

24.1 Effective January 2019, Senior Adjunct Faculty with a teaching load of a minimum of three 3-credit courses (inclusive of credited courses taught through day and continuing education) in spring 2019, and who had a teaching load of three 3-credit courses in the fall 2018 will be deemed eligible for the Commonwealth's employee benefit plans including retirement and health insurance.

24.2 Effective Fall 2019, Senior Adjunct Faculty with a teaching load of a minimum of three 3-credit courses (inclusive of credited courses taught through day and continuing education) in each of fall and spring terms will be deemed eligible for the Commonwealth's employee benefit plans including retirement and health insurance.

24.3 Effective Fall 2020 and thereafter Senior Adjunct Faculty with a teaching load of a minimum of five 3-credit courses (inclusive of credited courses taught through day and continuing education) over the fall and spring terms (i.e., distributed as either 3/2 or 2/3 fall over spring) will be deemed eligible for the Commonwealth's employee benefit plans including retirement and health insurance.

24.4 For purposes of the above determination of benefits eligibility beginning fall 2019, the Union and University agree to consider occasions when a faculty member's teaching load reaches the threshold for defined eligibility such that the equivalent work effort and required level of teaching credits is established, e.g., a Mathematics instructor could have a 4 credit course, a 3 credit course, and a 2 credit course assigned to them each semester.

24.5 Initially, the employer costs to implement these employee benefits shall be made from remaining unexpended funds as referenced in the parties' April 26, 2016 Agreement, after which, the University will build these costs into base budgeting.

24.6 Annual Appointments and Distribution of Benefited Compensation: Senior Adjunct Faculty with an annual teaching load that qualifies them to participate in state benefits will receive one-year appointment letters, and their compensation for their fall and spring course assignments will be distributed over 12 months (i.e., 26 paychecks from September through August).

26 ARTICLE 26: PAY DAY

- 26.1 A Faculty member shall be paid on a bi-weekly basis for the teaching and other compensable duties he/she performed.
- 26.2 The University shall provide the faculty member the salary detailing the gross pay per course, the start and end dates of the course, and the faculty rank. This documentation shall be provided to the Faculty member when the ePAF or its equivalent is provided to the payroll department. However, the expectation is that the Department will provide the information to the Faculty member at the same time it is forwarded to the Provost's office or other authorized official. 26.3 As a condition of employment all Faculty members must agree to have their pay directly deposited into a bank account of their choosing. In addition, the University requires all unit members to abide by the University's "green" initiative of suppressing the printing of their pay stub. The precise payday shall be the same day set for others in the University who are similarly situated.

27 ARTICLE 27: NO STRIKE, NO LOCKOUT

27.1 The Union agrees that it will not, nor will it permit any member of the Union to, call, instigate, engage or participate in or encourage or sanction any strike, sympathy strike, sit-down, slow-down or stoppage of work.

27.2 The University agrees that it shall not lock out any of the faculty members covered by this agreement.

28 ARTICLE 28: POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND WORK RULES

28.1 Proposed changes or additions to the Employer's policies, procedures and work rules shall be brought to the Labor Management Committee pursuant to Article 7 of this Agreement, prior to finalization and implementation. In exigent circumstances, if schedules do not allow for a Labor Management Committee meeting, the Union's representative and the Unit Chair will substitute for the Labor Management Committee. Once finalized, such proposed changes shall be forwarded by the Employer to the Union and distributed to all Faculty members at least ten business days prior to their proposed implementation. No policies, procedures or work rules which are inconsistent with this Agreement shall be implemented without the consent of the Union.

28.2 The parties have discussed and agreed the training currently required by state and federal law, including Title IX and any state ethics or conflict of interest requirements, may be made mandatory by the University without additional compensation, provided that it is available to be completed online. This does not alter the parties' existing practice with respect to computer training necessary for faculty to conduct online courses.

29.1 All benefits to employees, attributable to the adjunct and part-time faculty positions held and which are set forth in written University policy heretofore existing, shall be continued unless discontinued or modified by terms of this agreement or by other written agreements between the University and the Union.

29.2 Any prior benefit not the subject of a written University policy shall be treated as written if such prior benefit has been:

29.2.1 A consistent and ascertainable course of conduct.

29.2.2 Engaged in for some reasonable length of time.

29.2.3 Of which both parties are aware.

29.2.4 Which does not vary the express, written terms of this agreement.

29.2.5 Which is in respect to a given set of specific circumstances and conditions.

30 ARTICLE 30: SUCCESSORSHIP

Other than at the time of negotiations on a successor to this Agreement, both parties must mutually agree and consent to the opening of this Agreement before negotiations begin. All of the terms of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect during the period of any such negotiations and shall remain intact until both parties sign documents agreeing to the specific waiver, modification, addition, and/or deletion. All of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect during the negotiation of a successor Agreement.

33 ARTICLE 33: PRODUCTION/DISTRIBUTION OF AGREEMENT

The University will post this Agreement in a publicly accessible location of the University's website.
